PRISONS ACT 2015

An Act to provide for the closing of Saint Patrick’s Institution; to make further provision for the closing of prisons; for those purposes to amend the Prisons Act 1933 and to provide for consequential amendments to certain other enactments; to make provision, in respect of certain persons who are serving sentences of imprisonment, for the purposes of deportation or removal from the State; to amend the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851; and to provide for related matters. [25th December, 2015]

Be it enacted by the Oireachtas as follows:

PART 1

PRELIMINARY AND GENERAL

Short title, commencement and collective citation

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Prisons Act 2015.
(2) Section 3 and Parts 2 and 3 shall come into operation on such day or days as the Minister may appoint by order or orders either generally or with reference to any particular purpose or provision and different days may be so appointed for different purposes or different provisions.
(3) Parts 1 and 2, section 11 and Part 4 and the Prisons Acts 1826 to 2007 may be cited together as the Prisons Acts 1826 to 2015.

Definitions

2. In this Act—

“Minister” means the Minister for Justice and Equality;

“Saint Patrick’s Institution” means the institution called and known as “Saint Patrick’s” and situate at North Circular Road, Dublin.

Repeals and revocation

3. (1) The following enactments are repealed:
  - (a) the Prevention of Crime Act 1908;

- (b) sections 10 and 11 of the Criminal Justice Administration Act 1914;
  - (c) sections 12 and 13 of the Criminal Justice Act 1960;
  - (d) sections 6 and 7 of the Prisons Act 1970;
  - (e) section 1(1) of the Criminal Law (Jurisdiction) Act 1976.
- (2) The repeal of the enactments specified in subsection (1) shall not affect the lawfulness of—
- (a) the detention of any person sentenced to detention in, or
  - (b) the remand of any person remanded to,
- Saint Patrick’s Institution pursuant to any of those enactments before the coming into operation of this section.
- (3) The Saint Patrick’s Institution Regulations 1960 (S.I. No. 224 of 1960) are revoked.

Expenses

4. The expenses incurred by the Minister in the administration of this Act shall, to such extent as may be sanctioned by the Minister for Public Expenditure and Reform, be paid out of moneys provided by the Oireachtas.

PART 2

CLOSING OF SAINT PATRICK’S INSTITUTION

Definitions (Part 2)

5. In this Part—

“prison” means a place of custody administered by or on behalf of the Minister (other than a Garda Síochána station) and includes—

- (a) a place of detention provided under section 2 of the Prisons Act 1970, and
- (b) a place specified under section 3 of the Prisons Act 1972;

“temporary release”, in relation to a person, means the release of the person from a prison or Saint Patrick’s Institution for a temporary period in accordance with a direction given by the Minister under section 2 of the Criminal Justice Act 1960.

Power of Minister to close Saint Patrick’s Institution

6. (1) The Minister may by order (in this Part referred to as the “closing order”) direct that Saint Patrick’s Institution shall be closed on and from a specified date.
- (2) When the Minister makes the closing order, he or she may also, if he or she so thinks fit, by the same order direct—

- (a) that any person who, immediately before such closing, was to be committed to Saint Patrick's Institution—
- (i) to be remanded in custody, or
  - (ii) to serve a sentence of detention,
- by virtue of an order made or warrant issued by a court that was in force upon such closing but which had not been executed before such closing, shall be committed to such prison as is specified in the closing order for that purpose;
- (b) that any person who, immediately before such closing, was on temporary release from Saint Patrick's Institution, shall be on temporary release from such prison as is specified in the closing order for that purpose.
- (3) If the closing order contains a direction under paragraph (a) of subsection (2), a reference in an order made or warrant issued by a court referred to in that paragraph to Saint Patrick's Institution shall, on and after such closing, be construed as a reference to the prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, and the order made or warrant issued by the court shall have effect accordingly.
- (4) Where, on or after the coming into operation of the closing order, a person referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) is committed, pursuant to the order made or warrant issued by a court concerned, to the prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, such person shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.
- (5) If the closing order contains a direction under paragraph (b) of subsection (2), a person referred to in that paragraph shall, on and after the coming into operation of the closing order, be regarded as being on temporary release from the prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, and the direction concerned given by the Minister under section 2 of the Criminal Justice Act 1960 in respect of the person shall have effect accordingly.
- (6) Where, on or after the coming into operation of the closing order, a person referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (2) is, following the expiry of the period of temporary release concerned, detained in the prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, such person shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.
- (7) When the Minister makes the closing order, Saint Patrick's Institution thereby directed to be closed shall be closed in accordance with that closing order.
- (8) The Minister shall cause a copy of the closing order to be laid before each House of the Oireachtas as soon as may be after it is made.

PART 3

- (a) in subsection (1), by substituting for “by the same order direct that all the estate and interest of the Minister in the whole or any specified portion of the prison or part of a prison so directed to be closed shall, immediately upon such closing or on any specified subsequent date, vest in the local authority.” the following:

“by the same order direct all or any of the following:

- (a) that any person who, immediately before such closing, was to be committed to the prison (or part thereof) so directed to be closed, whether to be remanded in custody or to serve a sentence of imprisonment, by virtue of an order made or warrant issued by a court that was in force upon such closing but which had not been executed before such closing, shall be committed to such other prison as is specified in the closing order for that purpose;
- (b) that any person who, immediately before such closing, was on temporary release from the prison (or part thereof) so directed to be closed, shall be on temporary release from such other prison as is specified in the closing order for that purpose;

(c) that all the estate and interest of the Minister in the whole or any specified portion of the prison or part of a prison so directed to be closed shall, immediately upon such closing or on any specified subsequent date, vest in the local authority.”,

(b) by inserting the following subsections after subsection (1):

“(1A) If a closing order contains a direction under paragraph (a) of subsection (1), a reference in an order made or warrant issued by a court referred to in that paragraph to the prison (or part thereof) directed to be closed by the closing order shall, on and after such closing, be construed as a reference to the other prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, and the order made or warrant issued by the court shall have effect accordingly.

(1B) Where, on or after the coming into operation of a closing order, a person referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) is committed pursuant to the order made or warrant issued by a court concerned to the other prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, such person shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.

(1C) If a closing order contains a direction under paragraph (b) of subsection (1), a person referred to in that paragraph shall, on and after the coming into operation of the closing order, be regarded as being on temporary release from the other prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, and the direction concerned given by the Minister under section 2 of the Criminal Justice Act 1960 in respect of the person shall have effect accordingly.

(1D) Where, on or after the coming into operation of a closing order, a person referred to in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) is, following the expiry of the period of temporary release concerned, detained in the other prison specified in the closing order under that paragraph, such person shall be deemed to be in lawful custody.”,

(c) by adding the following subsection:

“(4) In this section ‘temporary release’, in relation to a person, means the release of the person from a prison for a temporary period in accordance with a direction given by the Minister under section 2 of the Criminal Justice Act 1960.”.

PART 5

MISCELLANEOUS

Taking of certain persons from prison for the purposes of deportation or removal from the State

24. (1) Where a person who is serving a sentence of imprisonment is subject to—
- (a) a deportation order under section 3 of the Immigration Act 1999 or an order made under any other enactment that deems such order to be an order made under the said section 3, or
  - (b) a removal order under Regulation 20(1)(a) of the European Communities (Free Movement of Persons) (No. 2) Regulations 2006 (S.I. No. 656 of 2006),
- the Minister may direct that the person, specified in the direction, shall be taken from the prison, in accordance with this section and subject to the condition specified in subsection (3)(a), if, in the opinion of the Minister, it is necessary or expedient to facilitate the person's deportation or removal, as the case may be, from the State before the completion by the person of the term of imprisonment concerned.
- (2) (a) The Minister shall not give a direction under subsection (1) in respect of a person where more than one year of the term of imprisonment concerned remains to be served in a prison.
  - (b) For the purpose of paragraph (a), in determining the term of imprisonment that remains to be served in a prison, account shall be taken of the period of any remission of sentence earned by the person in accordance with Rule 59 of the Prison Rules 2007 (S.I. No. 252 of 2007).
- (3) (a) The condition referred to in subsection (1) is that the person shall remain out of the State as required by the deportation order or removal order, as the case may be, to which the person is subject.
  - (b) A person who is taken from a prison pursuant to a direction under subsection (1) shall comply with the condition specified in paragraph (a).
- (4) Where a direction under subsection (1) has been given in relation to a person specified in the direction—
    - (a) the direction shall be given to the governor of the prison concerned,
    - (b) a notice in writing in the form prescribed under subsection (5), or in a form of like effect, of the direction and the condition specified in subsection (3)(a) shall be completed and signed by the governor of that prison,
    - (c) the person specified in the direction shall sign or place his or her mark on the notice in the presence of a witness (other than the governor of that prison) who shall also sign the notice,
    - (d) the person specified in the direction shall be given a copy of the notice at the time of his or her being taken from the prison in accordance with this section, and

- (e) the governor of the prison concerned to whom the direction is given shall comply with that direction, and shall make and keep a record in writing of that direction.
- (5) The Minister may by regulations prescribe the form of the notice referred to in subsection (4).
- (6) If a person specified in a direction under subsection (1), having been requested to sign or place his or her mark on the notice referred to in subsection (4), refuses to sign or place his or her mark on the notice—
  - (a) the refusal shall be recorded on the notice, and
  - (b) the refusal shall not affect the lawfulness of the person's being taken from the prison in accordance with this section.
- (7) A person who is to be taken from a prison pursuant to a direction under subsection (1) shall be placed for the purposes of this section by the governor of the prison concerned in the custody of an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána and detained by him or her in accordance with subsection (8).
- (8) (a) A person who is placed in the custody of an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána and detained under subsection (7) may be detained for the purpose of his or her being placed in accordance with subsection (9) and for a period or periods each not exceeding 12 hours—
  - (i) in a vehicle, for the purposes of bringing the person to the port from which the ship, railway train, road vehicle or aircraft concerned is due to depart, or
  - (ii) within the port referred to in subparagraph (i).
- (b) On the expiry of each period of 12 hours referred to in paragraph (a) an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána shall return the person to the prison in which he or she is required in accordance with law to be detained and place the person immediately back in the custody of the governor of the prison concerned.
- (9) A person who is placed in the custody of an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána and detained under subsection (7) may be placed on a ship, railway train, road vehicle or aircraft about to leave the State by an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána, and shall be deemed to be in lawful custody whilst so detained and until the ship, railway train, road vehicle or aircraft leaves the State.
- (10) The master of any ship and the person in charge of any railway train, road vehicle or aircraft bound for any place outside the State shall, if so required by an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána, receive a person who is placed in accordance with subsection (9) on board such ship, railway train, road vehicle or aircraft and afford him or her proper accommodation and maintenance during the journey.
- (11) (a) Where a person, having been taken from a prison pursuant to a direction under subsection (1)—

- (i) escapes the lawful custody of an immigration officer or member of the Garda Síochána, or
- (ii) contravenes the condition specified in subsection (3)(a) (save where subsection (13) applies), such person shall be deemed to be unlawfully at large.

- (b) A person who is unlawfully at large under subparagraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (a) shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months.
  - (c) An immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána may arrest without warrant a person whom he or she suspects to be unlawfully at large under subparagraph (i) or (ii) of paragraph (a) and the person may be returned to the prison in which he or she is required in accordance with law to be detained and placed immediately back in the custody of the governor of the prison concerned.
- (12) Where a person, having been taken from a prison pursuant to a direction under subsection (1)—
- (a) by reason of his or her conduct, is refused permission to embark, or is required to disembark, or is disembarked from, the ship, railway train, road vehicle or aircraft on which he or she was to be deported or removed from the State,
  - (b) does not leave the State by reason of ill-health, or
  - (c) does not leave the State because the ship, railway train, road vehicle or aircraft on which he or she was to be deported or removed from the State failed to leave the State, an immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána may return the person to the prison in which he or she is required in accordance with law to be detained and place the person immediately back in the custody of the governor of the prison concerned.

- (13) (a) Where a person, having been taken from a prison pursuant to a direction under subsection (1), returns to the State because the ship, railway train, road vehicle or aircraft on which he or she was to be deported or removed from the State returns to the State, having failed to complete its journey, such person shall be deemed to be unlawfully at large.
- (b) An immigration officer or a member of the Garda Síochána may arrest without warrant a person whom he or she suspects to be unlawfully at large under paragraph (a) and the person may be returned to the prison in which he or she is required in accordance with law to be detained and placed immediately back in the custody of the governor of the prison concerned.
- (14) The currency of the sentence of imprisonment of a person who is unlawfully at large under subparagraph (i) or (ii) of subsection (11)(a) for any period shall be suspended in respect of the whole of that period.

- (15) In this section—

“governor” includes, in relation to a prison, a person for the time being performing the functions of governor;

“immigration officer” has the meaning it has in section 3 of the Immigration Act 2004.

(16) In this section—

- (a) references to a person who is serving a sentence of imprisonment shall be construed as including references to a person being detained in a place provided under section 2 of the Prisons Act 1970 and “sentence of imprisonment” shall be construed accordingly, and
- (b) references to a prison shall be construed as including references to a place provided under the said section 2.

Amendment of section 41 of Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851

25. Section 41 of the Petty Sessions (Ireland) Act 1851 is amended by adding the following:

“For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that the reference in this section to the executing of any warrants does not include a reference to the addressing of such warrants.”.
