- (xi) give directions to, or request such information of, a person regarding a live bird or an avian product, fodder, litter, vessel, vehicle, aircraft or container as he or she considers necessary,
- (xii) require the name and address of a person and the name and address of any other relevant person including the person to whom the live bird or an avian product is being delivered or who is causing it to be delivered,
- (xiii) require of the person the ownership, identity and origin of the live bird or an avian product, fodder or litter, or
- (xiv) mark or otherwise identify a live bird or an avian or a specimen taken under subparagraph (vi).

(2) An authorised officer shall not enter, other than with the consent of the occupier, a private dwelling, unless he or she has obtained a search warrant under Regulation 5.

(3) An authorised officer when exercising any powers under this Regulation or Regulation 5 may be accompanied by other persons and may take with him or her, or those persons may take with them, any equipment or materials to assist the officer in the exercise of those powers.

(4) An authorised officer shall not be liable in any proceedings for anything done in the purported exercise of his or her powers under this Regulation if the court is satisfied that the act was done in good faith and that there were reasonable grounds for doing it.

(5) If a member of the Garda Síochána has reasonable cause to suspect that a person has committed an offence under these Regulations, the member may without warrant arrest the person.

Search Warrant

6. (1) If a judge of the District Court is satisfied by information on oath of an authorised officer that there are reasonable grounds for suspecting-

- (a) that there is on any land or in any premises, vehicle, vessel, aircraft or container any live bird or an avian product that has been, may have been or may be imported in contravention of Regulation 3 or 4, or
- (b) that there is evidence of an offence under these regulations relating to any live bird or an avian product therein or thereon, the judge may issue a search warrant.

(2) A search warrant issued under this Regulation shall be expressed and operate to authorise a named authorised officer, accompanied by such authorised officers, members of the Garda Síochána, officers of Customs and Excise and other persons as the named officer thinks necessary, at any time or times, within one month from the date of issue of the warrant, on production if so requested of the warrant, to enter (if necessary by force) the land, premises or vehicle, vessel, aircraft or container named in the warrant.

(3) If any premises, land or vehicle, vessel, aircraft or container is entered pursuant to a warrant issued under this Regulation, an authorised officer so entering may exercise all or any of the powers conferred on an authorised officer under these Regulations.

Obstruction

7. A person shall not—

- (a) obstruct or impede an authorised officer in the exercise of any of his or her powers under Regulation 5 or 6,

- (b) fail, without reasonable excuse, to comply with a requirement or direction made by an authorised officer under Regulation 5, or
- (c) in purporting to give information required by an authorised officer for the performance of the officer's powers under Regulation 5—
  - (i) make a statement which he or she knows to be false in a material particular or recklessly make a statement which is false in a material particular, or
  - (ii) fail to disclose any material particular.

Offences

8. (1) A person who, by act or omission, contravenes Regulation 3, 4 or 7, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding €5,000 or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding 6 months, or to both such fine and such imprisonment.

(2) An offence under these Regulations may be prosecuted by the Minister

(3) If an offence under these Regulations has been committed by a body corporate and it is proved to have been so committed with the consent or connivance of or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of any person who, when the offence was committed, was a director, manager, secretary or other officer of the body corporate, or a person purporting to act in any such capacity, that person, as well as the body corporate, commits an offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished as if he or she committed the first-mentioned offence.

(4) If the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, paragraph (3) shall apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the functions of management as if such a member were a director or manager of the body corporate.

Revocation
