Section 10

The Agency shall enjoy, in the territory of each State party to this Agreement, for its official communications, treatment not less favourable than that accorded by the Government of such State to any other Government, including the latter's diplomatic mission, in the matter of priorities, rates and taxes on mails, cables, telegrams, radiograms, telephotos, telephone and other communications, including electronic communications, and press rates for information to the press and radio.

Section 13

In order to secure for the representatives of Members at meetings convened by the Agency complete freedom of speech and complete independence in the discharge of their duties, the immunity from legal process in respect of words spoken or written and all acts done by them in discharging their duties shall continue to be accorded, notwithstanding that the persons concerned are no longer engaged in the discharge of such duties.

Section 14

Where the incidence of any form of taxation depends upon residence, periods during which the representatives of Members are present at meetings convened by the Agency in the territory of a Member party to this Agreement for the discharge of their duties shall not be considered as periods of residence.

Section 15

Privileges and immunities are accorded to the representatives of Members, not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves, but in order to safeguard the independent exercise of their functions in connexion with the Agency. Consequently, a Member not only has the right but is under a duty to waive the immunity of its representatives in any case where, in the opinion of the Member, the immunity would impede the course of justice, and where it can be waived without prejudice to the purpose for which the immunity is accorded.

Section 16

- (f) Have the right to import free of duty their furniture and effects at the time of first taking up their post in the country in question.

Section 19

1. The officials of the Agency shall be exempt from national service obligations, provided that in relation to the Members of which they are nationals, such exemption shall be confined to officials of the Agency whose names have, by reason of their duties, been placed upon a list compiled by the Director-General of the Agency and approved by the Member concerned.

2. Should other officials of the Agency be called up for national service, the Member concerned shall, at the request of the Agency, grant such temporary deferments in the call-up of such officials as may be necessary to avoid interruption in the continuation of essential work.

Section 20

In addition to the immunities and privileges specified in sections 18 and 19, the Director-General of the Agency, including any official acting on his behalf during his absence from duty, shall be accorded in respect of himself, his spouse and minor children, the privileges and immunities, exemptions and facilities accorded to diplomatic agents, in accordance with international law.

- (d) Inviolability of their papers and documents relating to the work on which they are engaged for the Agency;
- (e) The right to use codes and to receive papers or correspondence by courier or in sealed bags for the purpose of their communications with the Agency.

If any Member party to this Agreement considers that there has been an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement, consultations shall be held between that Member and the Agency to determine whether any such abuse has occurred and, if so, to attempt to ensure that no repetition occurs. If such consultations fail to achieve a result satisfactory to the Member and the Agency, the question whether an abuse of a privilege or immunity has occurred shall be submitted to arbitration in accordance with section 32. If the tribunal makes a finding that such an abuse has occurred, the Member party to this Agreement affected by such abuse shall have the right, after notification to the Agency, to withhold from the Agency the benefits of the privilege or immunity so abused and to request that the individual concerned leave the territory of the Member party to this Agreement affected by such abuse.

Section 27

Representatives of Members at meetings convened by the Agency, while exercising their functions and during their journeys to and from the place of meeting, and officials within the meaning of section 17, shall not be required by the territorial authorities to leave the country in which they are performing their functions on account of any activities by them in their official capacity. In the case, however, of abuse of privileges of residence committed by any such person in activities in that country outside his or her official functions, he or she may be required to leave by the Government of that country provided that:

Section 32

1. Any dispute between a Member party to this Agreement and the Agency or between Members party to this Agreement on the interpretation or application of this Agreement that cannot be settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement shall be submitted for final decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators at the request of either party to the dispute. Each party shall appoint one arbitrator and advise the other party of the name of its arbitrator. The third arbitrator, who shall be the chairman of the tribunal, shall be appointed by the first two arbitrators. Should the first two arbitrators fail to agree upon the third arbitrator within thirty (30) days of the date of appointment of the second arbitrator, the third arbitrator shall be appointed by the President of the International Court of Justice.

2. The arbitration shall be held in a language and at a location agreed upon between the parties to the dispute. A majority vote of the arbitrators shall be sufficient to reach decisions, including those on procedural matters, which shall be final and binding.

3. The expenses of arbitration shall be borne by the parties to the dispute as assessed by the tribunal.

*Article XIGENERAL PROVISIONS*Section 33

The provisions of this Agreement in relation to the Agency shall be interpreted in the light of the functions with which the Agency is entrusted by the Statute.

This Agreement shall not be deemed to prevent the conclusion between any Member party to this Agreement and the Agency of supplemental agreements adjusting the provisions of this Agreement or extending or curtailing the privileges and immunities thereby granted.

Section 35

This Agreement shall not be construed so as to abrogate, or derogate from, any provisions of the Statute or any rights or obligations which the Agency may otherwise have, acquire, or assume.
