EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Instrument and does not purport to be a legal interpretation.)

These Regulations amend the Social Welfare (Consolidated Claims, Payments and Control) Regulations to specify dates when payment of the Covid-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment will cease, beginning with those whose reckonable weekly income (previously calculated in accordance with article 52I of the consolidated Regulations) is less than €200 per week.

For those whose average reckonable weekly income is less than €200.00:

- (a) payment of the Covid-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment will cease from 22 October 2021.
- (b) For those who are in receipt of the Covid-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment and any other payment specified in sub-article (2) of article 223F, except for Child Benefit, payment of the Covid-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment will cease on 5 November 2021.

For those whose average reckonable weekly income was equal to or greater than €200.00 but less than €300.00 will, depending on the circumstances, cease to be paid in a like manner to that described in (a) and (b) over the period from 5 November until 28 January 2022.

For those whose average reckonable weekly income was equal to or greater than €300.00 will, depending on the circumstances, cease to be paid in a like manner to that described in (a) and (b) over the period from 28 January 2022 until 24 March 2022.

The final date from which no further payments of the Covid-19 Pandemic Unemployment Payment will be made, regardless of individual circumstances, is set at 25 March 2022.
