Notice of the making of this Statutory Instrument was published in “Iris Oifigiúil” of 24th January, 2023.

“Schedule” means the Schedule to these Regulations.

Annual Charge

4. (a) Each financial service provider shall pay to the Office an annual charge, being the required levy contribution, in respect of the services provided by the Ombudsman to the financial services industry, the amount of which is specified in, or calculated in accordance with, that Part of the Schedule that relates to the applicable category or categories for that financial service provider.
- (b) The required levy contribution shall be paid to the Office in respect of the levy period as specified in the Schedule and shall be payable not later than the date set out in the levy notice.
- (c) For financial service providers whose activities require authorisation by the Central Bank of Ireland or the Competition and Consumer Protection Commission, an annual charge is deemed to be payable when a financial service provider holds such authorisation as at 1 January 2023, or becomes authorised during the 2023 calendar year.

Levy Notice

5. (a) The Office may transmit, or may arrange the transmission of, a levy notice in writing to a financial service provider indicating the required levy contribution assessed by the Office to be payable by that financial service provider for the levy period.
- (b) The Office may require a financial service provider in writing to make an assessment, on the basis of the information in the possession of the financial service provider, of the amount of the required levy contribution to be paid by that financial service provider for the levy period, and to make a return to the Office of such assessment. The Office may indicate what information in respect of what periods any required assessment may be based upon. Where a financial service provider is required to make an assessment and return under this paragraph, the assessment and return must be made within such period, not less than 7 working days, as the Office may require.

Payment of Required Levy Contribution

6. The required levy contribution shall be paid by direct bank transfer or equivalent instantaneous transfer of funds to the bank account specified by the Office, or in such other manner as the Office may direct.

Appeal of Levy Notice

7. (a) A financial service provider who receives a levy notice under paragraph (a) of Regulation 4, may appeal to the Ombudsman, no later than 90 calendar days following the date of issue of a levy notice by the Office, to change the amount of the levy assessed for that financial service provider where it considers that the amount assessed is incorrect. Any such appeals must be in writing to the Ombudsman, setting out the grounds of the appeal in detail and must be accompanied by the amount of required levy contribution that is not in dispute. Where relevant, the appeal should include any supporting documentation or representations. Such a written appeal must be addressed to the Ombudsman.
- (b) The Ombudsman, after considering any such appeal, shall advise the appellant and the Office in writing of his decision and the reason therefor and, where appropriate, any amount of required levy contribution not already paid shall be payable by the financial service provider to the Office within 21 working days after the date of issue of the notification of the decision of the Ombudsman to the appellant.

Interest

8. Where an amount of required levy contribution becomes payable under these Regulations and is not paid by the due date, the financial service provider shall become liable to a penalty of interest on the amount of the required levy contribution outstanding, to be calculated on a simple interest basis. Such interest shall be calculated from the date on which the outstanding amount became payable in accordance with the Prompt Payment of Accounts Act 1997 as amended by the European Communities (Late Payment in Commercial Transactions) Regulations 2012 - S.I. 580 of 2012, for each day or part of a day during which the outstanding amount remains unpaid.

Records

9. (a) Each financial service provider shall, and shall in accordance with a direction (if any) as may be given by the Office, keep full and true records of all transactions which affect their liability under these Regulations and any related returns made.
- (b) A record kept by a person pursuant to paragraph (a) of this Regulation and, in the case of any such record that has been given by the person to another person, any copy thereof that is in the power or control of the first-mentioned person, shall be retained by that person for a period of 6 years from the date of the last transaction to which the record relates.

This Regulation shall not apply to records of a company that have been disposed of in accordance with section 707(1) of the Companies Act 2014.

- (c) No person shall, in purported compliance with a provision of these Regulations, provide an answer or explanation, make a statement or produce or deliver any return, certificate, balance sheet or other document which is false in a material particular.
- (d) A financial service provider that —
 - (i) fails to comply with any requirement under these Regulations to make an assessment;
 - (ii) fails to maintain records in accordance with these Regulations;
 - (iii) in breach of paragraph (c) of this Regulation provides any answer or explanation, or makes a statement or produces or delivers any return, certificate, balance sheet or other document that is false; or
 - (iv) otherwise fails to comply with a provision of these Regulations thereby failing to pay, or preventing the collection of, any or all of the required levy contribution or thereby preventing a full and proper assessment of their liability under these Regulations, shall be subject to a penalty of an amount assessed by the Office under Category L of the Schedule and the Office may send a levy notice to such a financial service provider indicating that basis of assessment.

- (e) In the event of a financial service provider being assessed under Regulation 9(d) of these Regulations and Category L of the Schedule —
 - (i) any monies already paid by the financial service provider in purported compliance with any provision of these Regulations shall be credited to the financial service provider;
 - (ii) the due date in respect of the required levy contribution under Category L shall be determined in accordance with Regulation 4;

and

 - (iii) the financial service provider may appeal to the Ombudsman under Regulation 7.

Service

10. Any levy notice, requirement to make an assessment, or appeal determination authorised by these Regulations, shall be served on a financial service provider —

- (a) if the person is an individual —
 - (i) by delivering it to that person, or

- (ii) by sending it by ordinary pre-paid post addressed to that person at the person's usual or last known place of residence or business, or
 - (iii) by leaving it for that person at that place, or
 - (iv) by electronic means to that person's last known e-mail address, evidenced by a valid sent receipt; and
- (b) if the person is a body corporate or an unincorporated body of persons —
- (i) by sending it to the body by post to, or addressing it to and leaving it at, in the case of a company, its registered office (within the meaning of the Companies Act 2014) and, in any other case, its principal place of business, or
 - (ii) by electronic means to the last known e-mail address provided, in the case of a company, evidenced by a valid sent receipt.

GIVEN under the Official Seal of the Financial Services and Pensions Ombudsman Council,

20 January, 2023.

MAEVE DINEEN,
Chairperson.
